

CHURCH SEATS AND CHURCH PEWS

New Styles Cheap and Endurable.

Comfort and Beauty Combined.

UNTIL the large number of people who are never seen in churches can be assured that every church in this vicinity will have a set of seats that will be clean, comfortable and inviting, they will not be seen inside a church. Many churches will supply this long-felt want if they could do so at prices and on terms within their reach, thus increasing their attendance, drawing on the unusually large number of people who do not attend the churches, and which would evidently result in every service being crowded. A barrier has been in the way in the form of high prices, shoddy goods and no terms. This barrier has been removed by the Church Supply Department of the National Baptist Publishing Board, which has presented the new style church seat (its own creation and its own make). These seats are constructed of the best grade of hardwood. They are built by the best skilled mechanics and have proven to be the most comfortable ever offered at the prices. The terms on which they can be purchased are so easy that any church, regardless of its financial condition, can secure a set of these by a small cash payment, have the seats installed and pay the remainder in monthly or quarterly payments to suit their own financial condition. How long, with such inviting inducements offered, will it be, before every church in and about Nashville will get a set of seats? References can be given to the Nashville churches by referring them to Rev. L. Kirkpatrick, pastor of the St. John Baptist Church, Pearl St.; Rev. J. L. Harding, pastor of the North Third Avenue Baptist Church, both of whom have seated with new style church seats; Rev. G. B. Taylor, pastor of the Second Baptist Church, corner Stevens and DeLuge Sts.; Rev. Wm. Haynes, pastor of Sylvan Street Church, Shelby Avenue, who have installed the church pews.

PEARL HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

This school was favored the past week with an unusual number of distinguished visitors. Among the number were Mesdames Tyree, Davis and Simington. Mrs. Simington, formerly Miss Lula Polk, of this city, is a graduate of this school, and formerly taught in the city schools. She now resides in Mobile, Ala., where her husband, Dr. A. B. Simington, has a large and lucrative practice. Rev. J. A. W. Moore, of Gallatin, and Rev. G. L. Jackson, of Nashville, both of whom have children in the High School, spent one day with us this week.

High School examinations were held as follows: Monday, General History; Tuesday, Latin; Wednesday, Rhetoric; Thursday, Science; Friday, Mathematics. At this writing the returns are not complete, and it is not definitely known who passed or who failed.

The first practice of the Commencement program will take place at the Ryman Auditorium Monday Morning, June 3, at 10 o'clock. This rehearsal, however, is not open to the public.

Miss E. J. Pinkard, our accomplished Eighth-A Grade teacher, is now entertaining Miss Lula Smith, of St. Paul, Minn. Miss Smith will remain in Nashville until after the Fisk Commencement, when she and Miss Pinkard will visit several important cities in the South.

Mrs. A. W. Davis, of Sheffield, Ala., formerly Miss Hattie Jackson, will arrive in Nashville soon. She comes especially to visit the Commencement exercises of this school.

One of the prettiest numbers on the Commencement program will be the Fancy Drill by sixteen High School girls, under the direction of Miss L. A. Bright. Miss Bright has labored hard to make this feature a telling success. With the splendid selection of music that has been made, the careful preparation and drill of the speakers, together with the Fancy Drill—a Scene from the festival of Venus—the exercises bid fair to excel any that this progressive school has presented in recent years.

SPRING HILL NOTES.

The Nashville Globe! Send it on. Mrs. Jennie Chairs made a visit to Nashville this week.

Rev. M. Anderson was greeted by a crowded house Sunday evening at Wesley Chapel.

Miss Annie Campbell, principal of Mt. Zion School, is visiting friends here this week.

The public school closed here Thursday.

Miss Lizzie Bradshaw closed the Gravel Hill School Monday.

Misses Mayme and Rena Blair and Bertha McLemore visited Franklin this week.

Mr. A. McGuire, of Nashville, is the guest of Mrs. Richard McKissack.

Mr. Harvey Lynch, of Nashville, visited his sister, Mrs. Jas. Blair.

Messrs. D. and J. Overton, Mr. Samuel Bond and family attended the closing of Columbia High School.

Mr. T. Harvey, of Louisville, and Mr. Wm. Hugh, of Franklin, were in the city this week.

Mr. W. Phillips and Hugh Morgan were in Columbia this week.

Little T. L. Buford, of Nashville, is spending a while with his grandmother, Mrs. E. McLemore.

Mrs. Lucy Sharber and Mrs. L. Owens visited Mt. Pleasant this week.

Misses Hattie Lou and Laurena Owens will be among the Wesley Choral Club for Children's Day.

Mr. Luther Polk has been sick for several weeks.

The firm of W. J. Campbell & Co. is composed of blacksmiths and general repairs. It is composed of Mr. Campbell, a white man, and Mr. Murray Wade, colored, who owns half interest in the business. Mr. R. Kittrell, a competent workman, is an employee of the company.

Mrs. R. McHenry entertained a number of little folks this week.

WALDENITES ENTERTAINED.

A pleasant afternoon was spent recently by a number of Waldenites at the home of Mrs. M. K. Buford, 642 Fogg street. A menu of three courses was the order of the evening. Those present were Misses Vaughn, Kinchlow, Ransom, Irvin, Snowden, Messrs. Ransom, Fullilove, Jackson, Wiley, Ratcliffe and Dobson. Mrs. J. B. Batte assisted in receiving the guests.

MR. E. C. McNAIRY TO VISIT THE CITY.

Mr. Ellis C. McNairy, recently of this city, but at present residing in French Lick, Ind., will in the near future make a flying visit to Nashville. Mr. McNairy will come particularly on business, but while here will attend the wedding of Dr. Wm. S. Page. He will also make arrangements to attend the Supreme Lodge of Knights of Pythias at Louisville, Ky.
